

Would of gave you everything but you didn't wanna try it
Gave you every part of me and you left me in silence
Late at night, alone in my own head and it gets violent
Next time love gets brought up by a bitch I'll say you wylin'
I spend all my time alone, I'm saving for an island
The only thing that gets me through my day is all my vices
I try to never question god but why did you design this
I can't remember the last time I felt good when I was smiling

And it feels like you like it, yeah, you love it
The look on you priceless, yeah, I hate it
I don't want to be famous, 'cause they'll find a replacement
Like you found a replacement, now everything is wasted
It's way too much to take in, that's why I'm gettin' wasted
Dyin' for a way in, why'd you let me taste it
Just to leave me vacant, can't wait till the day ends
Day in, day out, you're the that made this
You're the one that made this
You're the one that made this
You're the one that made this

Would of gave you everything but you didn't wanna try it
Gave you every part of me and you left me in silence
Late at night, alone in my own head and it gets violent
Next time love gets brought up by a bitch I'll say you wylin'
I spend all my time alone, I'm saving for an island
The only thing that gets me through my day is all my vices
