

You Don't Get It

60

Think ya do, ya think ya do, you just won't
Understand the way I feel
You just don't get it, you just don't get it
You won't admit it, please just spill it
Please just spill it
Even if it hurts, even if I lose feelings
Even if I lose feelings
Even if I start sippin' till the body stops livin'
But that's never really what I wanted
It feel better when we fuckin', what's the point of us talkin'?
I ain't feeling this right now but it would hurt if I lost it
It's the point of no return and I feel like you would cross it, wait
I start burnin' up when you walk in
Hypothermia when you don't call back
It really calms me down when we talkin'

Startin' to feel like lovin' you is dangerous
Poison me I know that I can take it
Immunity is built up from the achin'
New to me, my head feels like it's shakin'
Scrutiny, don't know if I can take it
You and me, I'm runnin' out of patience
Losin' me, I'm on my own, I'm pacin'
Anxiety, my heart, it started racin'
I don't wanna feel that, so I had to numb it
Know I got it real bad, show me that you want it
Everything probably okay, I always make assumptions
I'm overthinkin', drinkin' not watching my consumption
Had one too many, but I ain't fuckin' with this function
Rather just sit at home alone in my own corruption
Promise you that I never wanted to be destructive
I'm in too deep, how I'm still breathing? Feels like I've sunken
Can't find a way to let it out when I'm mad at you
Want you to stay even when you give me your attitude
Look at ya blind even when I'm covered in black and blue
Look at ya blind even when I'm covered in black and blue

Think ya do, ya think ya do, you just won't
Understand the way I feel
You just don't get it, you just don't get it
You won't admit it, please just spill it
Please just spill it
