You

6o

I want you to freak me
I know nothing comes free
I must give up something
Because you are what I need
Yeah you
You, you, ooh
You, you, you
You, you
I just want you to bust it open
It's the only time I feel ya
Just, just be quiet baby will ya
Just, just be quiet baby will ya

I'm so tired of your influence
Only love the way your body moves when you get into it
But I need you in my life so can we please continue it
Promise you that anything that happens we gon' get through it
But you act like talking to me is taboo
Baby, I understand that this shit is new
Even when you say that I'm too good for you
Please just stick around, promise it'll improve
Should I even keep on trying
Baby to be honest, yeah I think I need to
Sometimes I feel like I'm dying
Don't want you to feel like I depend on you
Should I even keep on trying
Baby to be honest, yeah I think I need to
Sometimes I feel like I'm dying
Don't want you to feel like I depend on you
You
You, you, you
You
You, you, you

I want you to freak me
I know nothing comes free
I must give up something
Because you are what I need
Yeah you
You, you, ooh
You, you, you
You, you
I just want you to bust it open
It's the only time I feel ya
Just, just be quiet baby will ya
Just, just be quiet baby will ya
