

Dead Wrong

So long
So long

Your lies and your cheating
Your cheating is a gift
And the only one your killing is yourself
You wanna talk about all the things you've done
But if you ain't got love you ain't got wealth
The things you say, the little games you play
Gonna catch up with you in end
And now I'm gone cause you know you're dead wrong
There ain't no need for you to pretend

Boy you know you dead wrong
I'll never be alone
It's time you moved on
So, so, so, so long
Don't need no alibi
Don't want no more lies
It's time you say goodbye
So, so, so, so long

Boy you know you dead wrong
I'll never be alone
It's time you moved on
So, so, so, so long
Don't need no alibi
Don't want no more lies
It's time you say goodbye
So, so, so, so long

Your actions speak louder than you think
Cause I notice everything you do
The time we spent boy it don't make sense
Cause you don't hurt the one you're closest to
I don't know any girl you flaunt
Can't compare to me she's just a clone
And lil' miss thing ain't nothing but a fling
When she goes home you'll be all alone

Boy you know you dead wrong
I'll never be alone
It's time you moved on
So, so, so, so long
Don't need no alibi
Don't want no more lies
It's time you say goodbye
So, so, so, so long

Boy you know you dead wrong
I'll never be alone
It's time you moved on
So, so, so, so long
Don't need no alibi
It's time you say goodbye

So, so, so, so long

I no longer have the patience for you (For you so long)
I could waste my life waiting on you (On you I'm gone)
You miss what you have when you think of the past
And there's no returning
But I'll be long gone

Boy you know you dead wrong
I'll never be alone
It's time you moved on
So, so, so, so long
Don't need no alibi
It's time you say goodbye
So, so, so, so long

Boy you know you dead wrong
I'll never be alone
It's time you moved on
So, so, so, so long
Don't need no alibi
It's time you say goodbye
So, so, so, so long

Boy you know you dead wrong
I'll never be alone
It's time you moved on
So, so, so, so long
Don't need no alibi
It's time you say goodbye
So, so, so, so long

Boy you know you dead wrong
I'll never be alone
It's time you moved on
So, so, so, so long
Don't need no alibi
It's time you say goodbye
So, so, so, so long
