

For so long,
I was the one that you leaned on.
Can't pretend,
'Cuz my love is true, it should be me and you babe.
Always knew,
One day that we would have a family.
Don't know what to do,
'Cuz in a week you're getting married,
I got...

Seven whole days,
And seven whole days,
Is not much time to make you mine.
Knowing that you should be here with me,
I can't deny, my love I can't hide.
Seven whole days,
And seven whole days,
To make you see you should be loving me.
Whatever you want, gon' make you feel right,
Yeah yeah, yeah yeah yeah.
Seven whole days, and seven whole nights.

Don't wanna hurt her,
But you leaving me, I just can't concieve.
It may not seem fair,
But in love and war there are no casualties.
I just want what's mine,
Boy you're making bad of what belongs to me.
I'm gon' change your mind,
And I guarantee, you're going to be leaving with me.

The flowers are coming today,
I hope she hasn't picked out a dress already.
I hope she picked out a ring that I like,
'Cuz it's going to be on my finger tonight.
