

Save Me

7Days

Alone I walk through an alley at night
Like a whisper I hear deceiving lies
The shadows are telling me to stop
There is no other way to go

Don't want to hear it
Don't want to see it
Don't want to know it
Don't want to be here

I hide my face now
I will deny it
I can not fight now
I can't believe

The pain
In this damnation game
Eternal fears
Throughout all the world

Endless tears
For thousands of years
We fear the old
The ancient dragon

I couldn't believe what he had done
And now I'm doing just the same
I feel the burden in my heart
I wish I could have it all undone

I want to hear it
I want to see it
I want to know it
I want to be there

I show my face now
I won't deny it
I will fight forever
I believe

Save me
Bleed for me
Breathe in me
I know you can hear me
Save me
Take my pain
Pray for me
I know you can see me

When darkness falls
All over me again
I will be there
I won't deny his name

Save me
Bleed for me
Breathe in me

I know you can hear me
Save me
Take my pain
Pray for me
I know you can see me
