7eventh Time Down

This love ain't basic, it covers all bases
Walking through the room, got you guessing who it came with
Wider than the space is, deeper than the bass hits

Don't go all in you'll never touch the stars They didn't know that I had Tasted you
They didn't know that nothing else would do
This love ain't basic

This love ain't basic, it covers all bases
Walking through the room, got you guessing who it came with
Wider than the space is, deeper than the bass hits
Hooky like this beat I'm cooking up in the basement
This love ain't basic

I'm in love with the most high
Y'all mad cause I fear God
I'm in love with the most high
Come on, come on, come and get it, right

Hooky like this beat I'm cooking up in the basement
This love ain't basic

Y'all mad cause I fear God
I'm in love with the most high
Come on, come on, come and get it, right

This love ain't basic, it's one for the ages
Got me feeling contagious
This love ain't basic
It's so much more than ordinary
It's one for the ages
