

Bow Down

7eventh Time Down

The pressure is building
The levee is breaking
The vultures are circling on every side
The giants are calling
And my fear is haunting
The liar is looking me right the eyes

Oh, but I know that I'm not alone in this fight

No...

I'm not gonna bow down
To the idols of this world
I'm not gonna sell out
Even when it feels like
All my hope is gone
I will March right through the valley
Though the enemy surrounds me
I'm not gonna bow down, no
I'm not gonna bow down, no

His promise is greater
His army is stronger
And His hand will pull me from the darkest grave
So I choose to trust in
The God who is Sovereign
He will deliver me and light the way

No...

I'm not gonna bow down
To the idols of this world
I'm not gonna sell out
Even when it feels like
All my hope is gone
I will March right through the valley
Though the enemy surrounds me
I'm not gonna bow down, no
I'm not gonna bow down, no

What could stand against me
What could stand against me
What could stand against me
No, I'm not gonna bow down
What could stand against me
What could stand against me
What could stand against me
No, I'm not gonna bow down
What could stand against me
What could stand against me
What could stand against me
No, I'm not gonna bow down

No...

I'm not gonna bow down
All my hope is gone

I will March right through the valley
Though the enemy surrounds me
All my hope is gone
