

Do You Believe

7eventh Time Down

It's a beautiful day
Everybody seems to know my name
I don't even feel the same as I did yesterday
It's a voice of love
Coming down from above
I never thought I could feel this way

I won't be the same. I'll never walk away

All I ever wanted or needed was a savior
Why do you keep waiting?
Salvation lasts forever
All I really wanna know is, do you believe?
Tell me now, whoa whoa
It's all I really wanna know...
Do you believe?

You can break away the chains
And live life in a brand new way
See the scars on a dirty face
And wipe their tears away
Be the voice of love
Coming down from above
Love will always be enough

Don't hesitate. You don't have to wait

Cus I care about you
It's all I really wanna know
What are you waiting for?
Why do you keep waiting?
Salvation is here
