

I Need Someone

7eventh Time Down

Do you remember when we were so far apart?
Do you remember each time that I broke your heart?
The memory remains
I was so ashamed
Do you remember?

Oh, I could spend forever in the arms of a savior

I need someone to carry me
Someone who believes in me
And be everything I ever wanted

I need someone to carry me
Someone who believes in me
You're everything I ever wanted

Do you remember the life that I gave for you?
Do you remember the promise I made to you?
The memory remains
The scars they still remain
But do you remember?

You could spend forever in the arms of a savior

I need someone to carry me
Someone who believes in me
And be everything I ever wanted

I need someone to carry me
Someone who believes in me
You're everything I ever wanted

You alone can make me beautiful
You alone, beautiful
You alone can make me beautiful

I need someone to carry me
Someone who believes in me
And be everything I ever wanted

I need someone to carry me
Someone who believes in me
You're everything I ever wanted

Everything I ever wanted
You're everything I ever wanted

I need someone to carry me
Someone who believes in me
You're everything I ever wanted
