

THIN WALLS

80purppp

I wasn't ready witchu
Gotta pick my head up
Would you get mad if I told you the truth
I can feel you so fed up (Damn)
You are
I blame
Everybody but my brain
Feel the same as yesterday

Cause I know what you won't do
Will you be my heart when I'm down (Down)
(Every bit of love I ever felt for you was unconditional)
Even when my heart weighs me down (Yeah)
(Dollar signs, bottom lines, tell me why you never compromise)
Will you keep on holding me down?
And out (I'll wait)
Don't let me down
(Oh babe)

These bitches tryna hoe me (They tryna)
If I do them dirty this is only right
Keep saying that you know me
Hit me back when you down to hold me tight
I been all by my lonely (I been all by my)
Please come through and save me from this lonely night
They keep tryna control me (They keep, they keep)
Will you set me free from this unholy plight

Ay, ay
Who else gon' set me free but you?
And who else gon' hold me down?
I'm tired of acting like we tried to actually talk I know deep down
The way you maneuver misguided
The I way I communicate flawed
This liquor and hookah done clouded our minds
So hop in the Uber let's ride
Back to the Telly, and girl I ain't fully aware so tell me tomorrow
I don't mean to be so obnoxious
You making a scene in the lobby
We tippy-toeing round the problems
Fill the void with the wrong things
You know I never been a nigga to front
So let's just put it all behind us

Cause I know what you won't do (Yeah)
Will you be my heart when I'm down (Down)
(Every bit of love I ever felt for you was unconditional)
Even when my heart weighs me down
(Dollar signs, bottom lines, tell me why you never compromise)

And out (I'll wait)

All I'm asking from you girl is that you don't leave
You weren't gonna be there, you weren't gonna be fair
Why you sitting back way out in the nosebleeds
How the fuck can you see out there
Show me what you mean to me out there
All I'm asking from you girl is that you don't leave
You weren't gonna be there, you weren't gonna be fair
