

Girl don't be nervous got me spitting game
Like it's Sunday Sunday service I'm not switching lanes
Got a nigga swerving turn you to my main
How we went from curving to pinky in the brain
It's a surprise under sundress (Surprise)
You came in my size only one left
I can't close my eyes when you undress
Know you on my mind when the sunsets

Moving up but I'm staying humble most of these dawgs rely on me
Take sides with me
We was just beefing 'til you seen the guys with me
Monopoly the demons out they was tryna take your property
Don't talk to me heard you was snitching dawg might get you dropped for free
(Pew, Pew)
I popped a bean in the back of the foreign take off your top for me
I'll be back but I'm touring won't make no 'pologies
Last night I was pulling out no the hoe do want a baby
Past 5 but I couldn't count wonder which hoe would save me then
Missed calls getting deleted
Wonder what I was going through
Never had no good reason
I just poured another deuce (poured another deuce)
Different girl every season cut it off and start with new Sticking to her like some glue (yeah)
I'll have fun with you

Girl don't be nervous got me spitting game

All these wires in the mail

That's my call of duty yeah
Get you bail and shoot a scene
Out my face boy you not my round
Jack the wave and try to steal the sound
Powder based she sniffing it make a sound
I'm outer space
And my feet are on the ground
