

Tequila Sunrise

88rising

I don't feel like arguin' tonight with you, with you
Just wanna be the best that I can be for you
Drinkin' tequila sunrise while the sun risin' (yeah)

I know what you like
I could probably give it all to you on side (On side)
Take your time, we could do this all night (Alright)
Fendi jacket on you lookin' so right
All bling, got you sippin' on 'Tron
Got me thinkin' 'bout you every single time I'm alone
This should put me in a zone, you can hear it in my tone
You could tell me what you want, but I already know (I know)
One shot, and you got me loose
Two shot, I'ma tell the truth
Truth is, I'm in love with you
Woke up to you by my side
Pour up, baby, one more time
Let's do it again tonight (Yeah, yeah, oh yeah)

I don't feel like arguin' tonight with you, with you
Just wanna be the best that I can be for you

Yeah

This is as good as God, and God is too good at this
Ridin' in Northern Cali, we bumpin' to Ludacris
Lovin' this Cali weather, I want it to last forever
I know forever don't ever last, I ain't new to this
Takin' the 105, thinkin' 'bout you and I
Hold this up by myself, there ain't no you and I
I get it, I get it, I admit I ain't enterprise
Lost it when you had cried, this is how doves cry
Anyway, back to business
Life is so cinematic and optimistic
Less aggressive with the pursuit of women
And I go the distance, but I know my limit
I love the idea of a marriage, but I'm too specific
And I'm too suspicious
I like ghetto women with opinions
Then I like a proper woman with her daddy pension
And the mother features, so my children get it
I'm in it just to win it, so I guess I want exquisite, yeah
