

Mean

8mm

Pick a line and I'll sing a song
Try to tell you I was wrong
And I'll play it slow and I'll sing it nice
Cuz you know I hate to say it twice

I say things I don't mean
You know that I'm kinda mean
You really shouldn't let me in, again tonight

Come on, baby, don't be mad
You know it's not always so bad
You like the game; movin' fast
I never said it was built to last

I say things I don't mean
You know that I'm kinda mean
You really shouldn't let me in
You know you shouldn't let me in
You really shouldn't let me in, again tonight

You know that you make me see
The best and the worst in me
You know that you make me do
Things that I can't believe are true
And you know that you do
And you know that you do
And you know that you do

I say things I don't mean
You know that I'm kinda mean
You really shouldn't let me in
You know you shouldn't let me in
You really shouldn't let me in, again tonight
