Oh no
Dummy lines like imma crash course
Fosho
They been scheming on my net worth
Of course
Keep my cards under the table
Fuck off

Fuck off

When there's nothing left
I'll save my breath
My one regret is thinkin that I never needed anyone
All my problems they've been weighing on my brain now
Wouldn't trade a million dollars for the pain now
I been waiting for somebody I could talk to
But never found an open door that they could walk through

I've been up 24 seven, gettin bands up
Why you actin so damn friendly, you should back up
Ya they know the dome, in scope they don't act tough
Goofies out here showing teeth, rely on backup
Spend 600 on some diamonds like an asshole
Hope they use my chains to hang me like a damn rope
I've been out here planting seeds and watching roots grow
I've been living in the past watching the trees blow

Oh no
Dummy lines like imma crash course
