93FEETOFSMOKE

I'm going MIA
This metal I can taste it
Metal in my face
Fade into the background
Imma go away
My imagination
Becoming what I hate
Turn into a chalk line
Goin' MIA

It's ending
I can taste it
See it on your face
I don't waste it
I don't wanna wait
There's always tomorrow
But that could always change
That could always change

I'm going MIA
This metal I can taste it
Metal in my face
Fade into the background
Imma go away
My imagination
Becoming what I hate
Turn into a chalk line
Goin' MIA

It's ending
I can taste it
See it on your face
I don't waste it
I don't wanna wait
There's always tomorrow
That could always change
That could always change
I see it on your face
That could always change
I see it on your face

Talk to me
Kinda like the way
You make it
Hard to breathe
I can't stick around
You know I got to leave
Something in the water
Giving me cold feet
Is that wrong of me?

Is it wrong of me
If I don't answer
All your calls?
Is it wrong of me
To pop another adderall?
Let 'em build

A house of glass
So I can watch it fall
Caught a stray
And now
My face is bleeding retinol

I'm going MIA
This metal I can taste it
Metal in my face
Fade into the background
Imma go away
My imagination
Becoming what I hate
Turn into a chalk line
Goin' MIA
I'm going MIA
This metal I can taste it
Metal in my face
Fade into the background
Imma go away
My imagination
Becoming what I hate
Becoming what I hate

It's ending
I can taste it
See it on your face
I don't waste it
I don't wanna wait
There's always tomorrow
That could always change
That could always change
I see it on your face
That could always change
I see it on your face
