Seeing blue, can't fix you
And nothing makes sense, turn off my phone, I don't need no one
Seeing blue, can't fix you
And nothing makes sense, turn off my phone, I don't need no one

I ask cause I'm not sure
Does anything even make sense anymore?
Make it make sense anymore
Cloth cut but it just don't really fit anymore
I ask cause I'm not sure
Does anyone make 'em like that?
Does anyone make 'em like that?
Does anything even make sense?

Seeing blue, can't fix you
And nothing makes sense, turn off my phone, I don't need no one
Seeing blue, can't fix you
And nothing makes sense, turn off my phone, I don't need no one

Seeing red, can we dead it?
I can't explain how I made it
This house of glass, easy break-ins
I don't wanna look, hard to witness

Ice in my lungs, and I can feel it all through my arms
Where'd did I go wrong?
Feels like the roots already starting to form
I don't answer when the winter comes
'Cause I don't wanna believe it
No I don't answer when the winter comes
Cause I don't wanna believe it

Seeing red, can we dead it?
I can't explain how I made it this
House of glass, easy break-ins
I don't wanna look, hard to witness
Seeing blue, can't fix you, yeah
Nothing makes sense
Seeing blue, can't fix you, yeah
Nothing makes sense
