

Stop Telling Me Nothing

93FEETOFSMOKE

I think that I've found
Nothing changes, but the view out our window
Looking perfect, retrospect, but we both know
That's just how it goes

Stop calling me at 6 in the morning
I don't wanna see your name in my home screen
When it's all said and done, it's worth nothing
No one cares about a thing, but themselves
Include me too, I wanna be numb too
I don't wanna love you, anymore

Anymore, anymore, anymore
I don't wanna care anymore
I'm such a bore
I've got no cure for this head on my shoulders

Stop telling me (Stop telling me)
Stop telling me nothing
Stop telling me (Stop telling me)
Stop telling me nothing
Stop telling me (Stop telling me)
Stop telling me nothing
Stop telling me nothing
I don't care anymore
