

Tired

93FEETOFSMOKE

I can feel this cloud hanging over my shoulder
I've been outside, and it's only getting colder
Never stay sane, I can never stay sober
It's never too late, but we're always getting older
The summer's almost over
I told myself I won't miss it

But I've been so tired, nothing helps me anymore
And it's been so hard getting past the shadows on my floor
And I can hear them call my name
And I can feel their blood running through my veins
Blame myself 'cause it's all my fault
One more time and it's almost over

'Cause I've been so tired, nothing helps me anymore
And it's been so hard getting past the shadows on my floor
And I can hear them call my name
And I can feel their blood running through my veins
I tell myself we're not the same

When it's over it's over
Flying first class like call it good closure
When it's over that's it
I ain't tryna put the pieces where I know they don't fit
Stop trying, 'cause you're making it worse
I know it's hard right now but you're making it worse
Stop lying, how you measure your worth
Yeah scars healed up, but you're making them hurt

Start way too much can't finish
Head still way too loud, can't listen
Too much caffeine and Adderall, and still can't pay attention
Start way too much can't finish
Head still way too loud, can't listen
Too much caffeine and Adderall, and still can't pay attention

When it's over it's over
Flying first class like call it good closure
When it's over that's it
I ain't tryna put a piece where I know it don't fit
Stop trying, 'cause you're making it worse
I know it's hard right now but you're making it worse
Stop lying, how you measure your worth
Yeah scars healed up, but you're making them hurt

'Cause I've been so tired, nothing helps me anymore
And it's been so hard getting past the shadows on my floor
And I can hear them call my name
And I can feel their blood running through my veins
But in the end it's all the same

But I've been so tired
And it's been so hard
And I can hear them call my name
