

The Way You Want Me To

98 Degrees

Won't throw no shade on you
Don't wanna put you through
Those lies you lived before
Girl, I can give you more
Baby take my hand
And try to understand
That I'll be here for you
Just the way you want me to

Feel like you're wasting all of your time
You're going out of your mind
From all the tears you've been crying
And I know all the things he's putting you through
The cheating no one can prove
You never know what to do, yeah

Just tell me what you feel inside
Don't be consumed by foolish pride
'Cause I can see with my two eyes
The pain that you've been holding tight
It's time that you begin to feel
The kind of love that's really real, yeah
Girl, let me tell you the deal

It's time for you to decide
What you want from your life
No room for compromise
'Cause I can give you everything that you need
Open your eyes and you'll see
That I can set you free, baby

So come to me with your broken heart
You'll feel the love from the very start
I think it's time for you to part
From a man that leaves you in the dark
You're the type that needs romance
Someone to break you from your trance
Now baby here is your chance

I know just what you're going through
You need a love that will always be true
Look in my eyes, girl. I'll give it to you
The way you want me to

The way you want me to
The way you want me to
The way you want me to
The way you want me to
The way you want me to
