

Small Minds

98 Mute

Our last laugh
Your short fuse
Your better days ahead are behind you
Behind you

Narrow eyes
You can't lose
The fight of your life is in front of you
In front of you

Sometimes some things aren't exactly what they seem
Some things sometimes have very different meanings

Ask yourself if you'll survive
Will you breakdown or will you shine
