

Where Did It All Go Wrong

98 Mute

Hey you, have you heard the news today?
Movement's dead, it grew old and died away
No more fists in the air, just solitude and despair

Labels exclude and divide
Inclusion grown from the inside
Brainwashed minds and division lines

Criticize what's not understood
Ostricize you're taught you should
Analyze everything you could

Hey kid, heard the news yesterday?
Punk is dead, it grew old and died away
No more fists in the air, broke beyond repair

Factions marching to a call
Who cares, all you fucking bought
Are the brainwashed minds and division lines

Criticize what's not understood
Ostricize you're taught you should
Analyze everything you could

Don't criticize, try to understand
Don't ostricize, reach out your hand
Don't analyze, accept your fellow man
