

Push me to edge and pull my tide
Welcoming your body next to mine
If you can do what others can't call it romance
Need myself to be the rival, arch my back and play that vinyl

Oh baby give me one reason why I should get you off my mind
Something I need right now is something you're craving all the time
Maybe it's love, hard to think of
Why I should pass you by

Ask me what my friends think
What do they care?
Probably wanna know how they can get it and where
See I saw you coming eyes ignited, when we get home, goin' right
Selfish to leave you all by your lonesome

If I give you time, yeah
Better make it worthwhile, yeah
I want that sweet sugar sugar on tap
Give it to me on back, yeah
I want the high low lows
You want the good blow blows
Tell me where the time goes
We gonna be here after close
I just need your time
I just wanna unwind with you
I just need your time
Oh baby, I need your time baby, I need your time

Ask me what my friends think
What do they care?
Probably wanna know how they can get it and where
See I saw you coming eyes ignited, when we get home, goin' right
Selfish to leave you all by your lonesome
