

past/today

A Boy and His Kite

I wonder how far I could run away
Fade away past the things I've seen
I find it hard to think another way
It's hard to pray and say "Let it be"

I won't fool you
I can't see past today
I won't lose you
On and on and on we'll find a way

I wonder how far I could drift away
Fade away past what I've known
I find my heart and will are feeling late
In between with no direction home

I won't fool you
I can't see past today
I won't lose you
On and on and on we'll find a way

On and on, on and on
On and on we'll find a way
On and on, on and on
On and on we'll find a way
