

In the Beginning

A Broken Silence

Satanic verses in my headphones
Every version from a wrecked home
From a father figure so silent
Now I'm screaming lyrics of violence
Kamikaze pilot, an addict into the rhythm
I listen to cats, re-enactments of known villains
Where life is grand (They ain't rapping about prison)
I'm seeing these younger fans get trapped in this old thinking
Trapped in this old thinking
Hope is dovetailing
Shooting gats and cold killing
You work the blue brand as a map toward children

In the beginning when I loved you
In the beginning, yeah I loved you
I had chains to undo
I'm up, up and away now, fuck you
In the beginning when I loved you
In the beginning, yeah I loved you
I had chains to undo
I'm up, up and away now, so fuck you

Now all you fans is selling drugs
And everything's about the funds
Stack cash and watch the women come
And fuck this crap, grab a gun
In the beginning the federate said
If you not kicking some knowledge, you not getting respect
And came the dawn of the record exec
They was pushing violence and sex like they peddling meth, huh
And we concerned about terrorist threats (What)

In the beginning when I loved you
In the beginning, yeah I loved you
I had chains to undo
I'm up, up and away now, fuck you
In the beginning when I loved you
In the beginning, yeah I loved you
I had chains to undo
I'm up, up and away now, so fuck you

In the beginning when I loved you
In the beginning when I loved you
I'm up, up and away, I'm up, up and away
I'm up, up and away, I'm up, up
In the beginning when I loved you

In the beginning the federate said
If you not kicking some knowledge, you not getting respect
Now it's the dawn of the record exec
And they're pushing violence and sex like they peddling meth, huh
And you're concerned about terrorist threats (What)

In the beginning when I loved you
In the beginning, yeah I loved you
I had chains to undo
I'm up, up and away now, fuck you

In the beginning when I loved you
In the beginning, yeah I loved you
I had chains to undo
I'm up, up and away now, so fuck you

In the beginning when I loved you
In the beginning when I loved you
I'm up, up and away, I'm up, up and away
I'm up, up and away, I'm up, up
In the beginning when I loved you
