A Broken Silence

I've been getting lost in the matrix
I've been getting lost in the matrix

Are we really nothing but flesh and blood?
Everybody's promised that death will come
As cells expire, in breathless lungs
If there is a heaven, where's the smoking gun?
Can you give us a sign, open our eyes
Or should we keep pointing telescopes to the skies
Everybody's looking for the meaning of life
But despite all the scriptures...

I've been getting lost in the matrix
Where it's all about payslips to keep us trapped in our cages
Are we avatars in a simulation?
Are we sinners, abominations?
Are we cells, sub atomic particles?
Is there a heaven and hell? Is it possible?
The odds that we exist is a miracle
Are we a motherboard of chips? Or spiritual?

I'm just a drop in the ocean, grain in the sand
Tell me, is it written, is it scripted, is it known?
Space is infinite? And we're spinning on a globe?
Open my eyes to a purpose, I'm drowning in flesh
Tell me, is it written, is it scripted, is it known
Space is infinite? And we're spinning on a globe?

Tell me, is it written or is it scripted

When we're born, are we downloaded from the system
Or just ticking time bombs?

I've been getting lost in the matrix
Are we gonna see the saviour, predicted by the sages?
Do you believe in ObEN or angels?
Are the tales of Noah fables?
If so... why the fabrication?
If gods real, why the war and hatred?
Why are we getting lost in emotion?
We're just a drop in the ocean

I'm just a drop in the ocean, grain in the sand
Tell me, is it written, is it scripted, is it known?
Space is infinite? And we're spinning on a globe?
Open my eyes to a purpose, I'm drowning in flesh
Tell me, is it written, is it scripted, is it known
Space is infinite? And we're spinning on a globe?

I'm just a drop in the ocean, grain in the sand
I'm just a drop in the ocean, oh-oh
Tell me, is it written, is it scripted, is it known?
Space is infinite? And we're spinning on a globe?
Open my eyes to a purpose, I'm drowning in flesh
Tell me, is it written, is it scripted, is it known
Space is infinite? And we're spinning on a globe?
