

The Right Price

A Broken Silence

VERSE 1

Step on anyone on your mission to rise up, human brethren have been listening to liars, killing for wealth or religion is a virus, rebelling from wisdom that guides us...

Bombs loaded, caught in the moment, no thought just war with opponents, pay that mortgage with my bonus, no thought of where your home is, gotta get my kids tuition, hope the missile hits with precision, to stop a terrorist ambition, them or us, quick decision. Hurry up, pick your mission...

HOOK

(Torcha) We fall for anything, everything has a right price

(Cactus) for better results you need to evolve to move me

(Torcha) destroy enemies, burry them till my minds right

(Cactus) it's taken it's toll, your way to involved to see that you fall
too easy

(Torcha) we fall for anything, everything has the right price

(Cactus) yeah you fall so easy

VERSE 2

Step on anyone on your mission to rise up, human brethren have been listening to liars, killing for wealth or religion is a virus, rebelling from wisdom that guides us...

Bombs loaded strapped to my vest now, so hopeless mad at the west now, been told a bomb is my best route, explode and god he will bless thou. My lands under occupation and we're branded abominations, circled by a domination, god damn I've lost my patience. I'm blowing up a station, paradise my consolation

HOOK

(Torcha) We fall for anything, everything has a right price

(Cactus) for better results you need to evolve to move me

(Cactus) it's taken it's toll, your way to involved to see that you fall
too easy

(Torcha) we fall for anything, everything has the right price

(Cactus) yeah you fall so easy
