I see you faintly
You're like cotton candy that's swaying
When I feel the warmth in my mouth
You disappear like a mirage

Can you see me now
See how I resemble you
Trust me and follow me, come on baby
The twinkling stars are with us
They're smiling
Even your spilling eyes

I just need a little bit more
Um just a little bit more
Um just a little bit more
Baby you got me, how
I just need a little bit more
Um just a little bit more
Um just a little bit more
Baby I love you all to day

Sweeter than yesterday
To me to you
Sweeter than yesterday

When we're together
The sun suddenly starts to shine in this dark place
Under the shadow
A aromatic smile spreads

Even the sand that scatters in the desert
Is like sugar powder
It's what we dreamed of
Paradise

Can you see me now
See how I resemble you
Trust me and follow me, come on baby
The twinkling stars are with us
They're smiling
Even your spilling eyes

I just need a little bit more
Um just a little bit more
Um just a little bit more
Baby you got me, how
I just need a little bit more
Um just a little bit more
Um just a little bit more
Baby I love you all to day

Sweeter than yesterday
To me to you

Sweeter than yesterday

It's a beautiful night
Close your eyes, that's right
Don't say good bye, good night
Let's start again in our dreams
Love again

Sweeter than yesterday

Let's start again in our dreams
