

Homemade Bombs In The Afternoon

A.C. Newman

Your choice
so choose we use the same weapons we do

We turn
to fire unwind into the seconds with you

Seconds to crystallize before you walk alone seconds to crystallize the fear here in the open ruins
of the homemade bombs in the afternoon

Can't win or lose when we use the same weapons we choose

Could go on for days in this way our aim is dead on and true

You hurt me when I hurt you we'll never walk alone we can do it all same time next year
here in the open ruins

Turn them on set them off
only true to his kind born to explode
just like mine

Your choice
so choose

We turn
unwind into the seconds with you

Here in the open ruins

Here in the open ruins
