

If it ain't one thing
Well, goddamn, it's another
For every shot you make
They judge you on all the others

So you, you could never understand
What I do for real, you only do for pretend
It's true (True)
You'll see when I'm long gone (Oh)

Bring home another dub for my city and run
Like it's 2016, and I'm LeBron
How many rings I need 'fore you'll say I'm the one?
The one, the one, woo

All you half-ass critics
Go have the day you deserve
There's a big damn difference
Between somethin' given, somethin' earned

So you, you could never understand
What I do for real, you only do for pretend
It's true
You'll see when I'm long gone (Oh)

Bring home another dub for my city and run
Like it's 2016, and I'm LeBron
How many rings I need 'fore you'll say I'm the one?
The one, the one, woo

If you're lookin' for mercy, that's somethin' I can't give
'Cause it's not worth winning if you can't win big
Yeah, yeah (Oh)

Bring home another dub for my city and run
Like it's 2016, and I'm LeBron
How many rings I need 'fore you'll say I'm the one?
The one, the one (Say I'm the one)

We're out here on a stage, everybody can see
It's us against the world, just my brothers and me
Nothin' more that I could say to make you believe
So fuck what you think

Ha, ha
