

Resentment

A Day to Remember

Resentment

I need a short-term fix for a long-term problem
Can I learn to love these chains?
I know I had a point, but now I forgot it
While I'm circlin' the drain

No, I can't stop feelin' like every day's exactly the same
With a one-track mind, I don't think I can change
Trapped in memories stuck on replay, replay, replay

Starts with a spark, then it's a wildfire
Burnin' me up, burnin' me up
A dance with demons on a high wire
Lift me up, lifting me up

Resentment

Ya know I lost my voice when I let the rot in Hard truth cuts both ways
Pourin' out my heart, all that's unforgiven
Washin' over me like rain

No, I can't stop feelin' like every day's exactly the same
With a one-track mind, I don't think I can change
Trapped in memories stuck on replay, replay, replay

Starts with a spark, then it's a wildfire
Burnin' me up, burnin' me up
A dance with demons on a high wire
Lift me up, lifting me up

Resentment

I've got this chip on my shoulder
So I press the issues on sight
For all who need introduction
Welcome to the eye of the tiger
Go

Starts with a spark, then it's a wildfire
Burnin' me up, burnin' me up
A dance with demons on a high wire
Lift me up, lifting me up

Starts with a spark, then it's a wildfire
Burnin' me up, burnin' me up
A dance with demons on a high wire
Lift me up, lifting me up

(It's a wildfire, it's a wildfire)
Resentment
(It's a wildfire, it's a wildfire)
