

Silence

A Day to Remember

I'd like to start with a "Thank you"
For everything you haven't done
Lifting the veil of deception
Now there's nowhere you can run
Run

Destroy the cornerstone
Tear out the heart of those
Atop the pedestal
Silence will no longer suffice

I guess I thought it'd be different
But such are the ways of the young
I'm done with my share of waiting
Now see who's under the gun

Destroy the cornerstone
Tear out the heart of those
Atop the pedestal
Silence will no longer suffice
No longer suffice

Betrayer
Like a thief with a hand in the wishing well
Betrayer
We caught you
Then the blade fell

Destroy the cornerstone
Tear out the heart of those
Atop the pedestal
Silence will no longer suffice
No longer suffice
No longer suffice
No longer suffice
