

Lonely Love

A Fine Frenzy

Baby, try a little harder, oh-oooh
Listen, I know it's hard to hear

I'm slipping like petals from your fingers
I'm slipping this circle of metal from my hand

It's lonely love
Lonely way out here

It's lonely love
When you disappear
It's lonely love
Lonely way out here

Maybe I could have tried a little harder
I closed all my curtains I left you in the black

How come you can't See I gave all that I had
See that I loved you back
Wasn't enough to make it last
Wasn't enough to make it last
(Even though)
Even though I wanted it bad
(I wanted it bad)
I gave you all that I had
(All that I had)
Wasn't enough to make it last
(It's lonely, lonely, lonely, lonely love)

It's lonely love
When you disappear
It's lonely love
Lonely way out here
But it was only love
Could have kept me close to you
But it was lonely love
Lonely love
