A Fine Frenzy

Everything is nicer when you're near me
Everything goes quiet when you go
Kiss me in the eye, I want you dearly
When you pull my hair, I want you more

All the windows open and your legs around me
We were one time strangers, now we're trying to make a baby
Oh my heart's over-pumping and your mouth is an ambulance
I can't stop laughing, I don't know if I can stand it

'Cause I like you so well
I like you so well
I like you so well
I like you so well

When I close my eyes, I see your big heart
Crying at the football in the dark
Folding up my laundry like a big star
You are for sure the better person, yeah you are

All the windows open and your legs around me
We were one time strangers, now we're trying to make a baby
Oh my heart's over-pumping and your mouth is an ambulance
I can't stop laughing, I don't know if I can stand it

'Cause I like you so well
I like you so well
I like you so well
I like you so well

All the windows open and your legs around me
We were one time strangers, now we're trying to make a baby
Oh my heart's over-pumping and your mouth is an ambulance
I can't stop laughing, I don't know if I can stand it

'Cause I like you so well
I like you so well
I like you so well
I like you so well

I like you so well (When I close my eyes, I see your big heart)
I like you so well (Crying at the football in the dark)
I like you so well (Folding up my laundry like a big star)
I like you so well (You are for sure the better person, yeah you are)
