Looking out the window
Watching how the wind blows
Checking out his intro
Vibing to his tempo
He won't need a demo
Just the instrumental
He can keep it simple
I'm still trying to win though

I say I don't care but I really do, I want you to please like me
They say not to swear but I swear it's true, I want you to please like me
Please forgive my ego, pride is all that he knows, please like me
I'm just being real, it's cool if you don't feel it, please like me

Just what I expected
We are so connected
And we have the power
'Cause we're so electric
Freaky innuendos
Even in the friend zone
He can keep it simple
I'm still trying to win though
