

Bumblebee

a-ha

The bell tower
Strikes the hour
On another day

But I remember
Just out of nowhere
Young and slender
She appears from somewhere
Corduroy jacket
And leather satchel
Belt with brackets
Pants with denim patches

I clock the minute
With her in it
We were thick as thieves

She's my protector
Bad vibes rejector
Wise crack injector
Bumblebee inspector
She's my defender
For as long as I can remember
Fragile and tender
Small bird befriender

She's my protector
Bad vibes rejector
Wise crack injector
Bumblebee inspector
She's my defender
For as long as I can remember
Fragile and tender
Small bird befriender

Those times
It just hit me
They'll forever stay
Here with me
