

A Better Time

A Killer's Confession

Run
Run until you can't stand up
Yeah that's what they want
To make it so you're out of luck
Don't try to face it

Cause it isn't real
It's all a lie to keep us all distracted
And every second they try to steal
It It holds us down in the blackest sabbath
Pulled in
Rising
Staying alive

We're being fed it's the end of days
I close my eyes but the world keeps fighting
Is no one there if we fall from grace?
If we survive
Can we make it to a better time
A better time
Make it to a better time
A better time
Make it to a better time

Numb
Numb is how they keep you down
Control the violent
You're screaming but you make no sound
We try to change it

Cause it feels too real
It's in your face but your so distracted
And every second that they try to steal
Holds us down in the blackest sabbath
Pulled in
Rising
Stay alive

We're being fed it's the end of days
I close my eyes but the world keeps fighting
Is no one there if we fall from grace?
If we survive
Can we make it to a better time
A better time
Make it to a better time
A better time

I can't get in line cause I've had enough
I can't get in line cause I have fucking had enough
I've had enough
When will we rise
A generation bottle fed their lies
If you open you mind get in line
Vacating the thrown while livening alone
Sinking the ship while you're throwing the stones

I close my eyes but the world keeps fighting
Is no one there if we fall from grace?
If we survive

We're being fed it's the end of days
I close my eyes but the world keeps fighting
Is no one there if we fall from grace?
If we survive
A better time
A better time
