

Monster

A Killer's Confession

And now I burn from the inside
The rage is a stain that I can't wash away
And now I burn on the inside
The rage is a hate I can't turn away
I can't turn away

And now I burn from the inside
I'm turning into a monster
I'm burning in disaster
Awaken me from this passion
The hands that feed now come crashing down
They come crashing down
They come crashing

Face the demon that is head on
The thing that screams with a voice so bitter
Voices so bitter
I watch it fade away from my mind
The pleasure that once was, was now forbidden
It is forbidden

And now I burn from the inside
I'm turning into a monster
I'm burning in disaster
Awaken me from this passion
The hands that feed now come crashing down
They come crashing down
Come crashing down
Come crashing down
Come crashing down
Come crashing down
Come crashing down

It's feeding me
It's feeding me

Undefeated that's all they see
Whip me out and let me to be
The isolation's become out of mean
Where are the ends that feed
Continue this pain
Take it all away
It comes crashing down

I'm turning into a monster
I'm burning in disaster
I'm turning into a monster
I'm burning in disaster
Awaken me from this passion
The hands that feed now come crashing down
They come crashing down
