A Killer's Confession

I'm faded
I don't want to be sedated
Everything around means nothing
The feeling that I can't go on
With everything crashing down

I'm running but yet I'm stuck delay
Nothing is real it's all a mistake
I'm taking the pills and further away
Will anyone take my place
I'm stepping out of line
I'm so lost

Show me what I need to be alive
I wanna be reanimated
Show me what I need to survive
I want to be reanimated

Frustration
Longing for just one Sensation
See-through the manipulation
The feeling that I can go on
With everything crashing Down

But how can I live with nothing is real
The Harder I pray the harder I Kneel
I'm not conditioned to say what I feel
Will anyone take my place
I'm stepping out of line
I'm so lost

Show me what I need to be alive
I wanna be reanimated
Show me what I need to survive
I wanna be reanimated
This crazy poison in my veins
It steals my will and numbs the pain
What I need to be alive
I wanna be reanimated

I'm running but yet I'm stuck in delay
Nothing is real it's all a mistake
I'm taking the pills and I'm further away
The harder I kneel all the harder I pray
So how can I live with nothing is real
The harder I pray the harder I kneel
I'm not condition to say what I feel
I'm all out of blood so how do I heal
I'm running but yet I'm stuck in delay
Nothing is real it's all a mistake
I'm taking the pills and I'm further away
The harder I kneel all the harder I pray
