

Tongue

A Killer's Confession

Don't you fucking push me (push me push me)
Don't you fucking see I'm about to break
I'll take you to the brink make you tell me what you fucking know
Pull up the blinders and say "oh was it for the show?"
Sick of the sickness it's the windows to the soul

Push all your hatred
(Push me, push me)

My hate is elevated and it's getting complicated
You pushed me across the line now I'm out of control

Pain. It all leads back to this place and it's all fucked up like me and it's fucked up to say God rest your soul.

I want to be calm, but in the back of me, I hated every word you said
I want to be calm, but in the back of me, I let go cause...
I'll dismantle everything you were
Forgiveness lost through violence thirst
I'll rip the tongue right out your mouth
Erase the hate without a sound
I Will erase the hate without a sound
I will erase the hate without a sound

Take me to the edge make you tell me what you fucking know pull off the mask say "oh was it for the show?"

Don't you realize
Don't fuck with me
Don't you realize
This is the end
Don't you realize
Don't fuck with me
Don't you realize
This is the end

Pain. It all leads back to this place and it's all fucked up like me and it's fucked up to say God rest your soul.

I want to be calm, but in the back of me, I hated every word you said
I want to be calm, but in the back of me, I let go cause...

I'll dismantle everything you were
Forgiveness lost through violence thirst
I'll rip the tongue right out your mouth
Erase the hate without a sound
I Will erase the hate without a sound
I will erase the hate without a sound

I'll watch it burn away
I'll watch it burn

Everything it burns it burns it's time to wash away everything it burns. It burns now that you fucked with me everything I'll burn I'll burn it's time I'll wash away everything I'll burn I'll burn now that you fucked with me

Dismantle everything you were

Forgiveness lost through violence thirst
I'll rip the tongue right out your mouth
Erase the hate without a sound

I'll dismantle everything you were
Forgiveness lost through violence thirst
I'll rip the tongue right out your mouth
Erase the hate without a sound
I Will erase the hate without a sound
I will erase the hate without a sound

Don't you fucking push me (push me push me)
Don't you fucking see I'm about to break
I'll take you to the brink make you tell me what you fucking know
Pull up the blinders and say "oh was it for the show? "
