

Trapped Inside

A Killer's Confession

I don't want anyone to know this
But I don't think anyone will notice
Even in a room full of people
Somewhere in the hay I'm the needle
Feelin so small and so helpless
Running down halls that are endless
Listen for a voice in the echo
Trying to find a sound that I might know

I know there's no way out
I'm trapped inside

Time is fucking with my mind
Truth hides within the lies
And It will decide when it's over
Fate tears down what I create
While laughing in my face
And It will decide when it's over
I'm trapped inside

I used to be alive and connected
Now I'm just a pit of rejection
Always had a rhyme or a reason
Now I'm just cold, yeah I'm freezing
Its hard to keep warm when you're empty
I'm waiting for the world to forget me
Tired of the self isolation
Tryin but there's no motivation
I know there's no way out
I'm trapped inside

Time is fucking with my mind
Truth hides within the lies
And It will decide when it's over
Fate tears down what I create
While laughing in my face
And It will decide when it's over
I'm trapped inside

I'm all alone in a room full of people
Standing in the middle where no one can see you
I am the voice this vengeance of pain
As long as I'm here this voice will remain
I'm all alone in a room full of people
Standing in the middle where no one can see you
I am the voice this vengeance of pain
As long as I'm here this voice will remain

Do I accept the pain
I carry on
I know there's no way out
I'm trapped inside

Time is fucking with my mind
Truth hides within the lies
And It will decide when it's over
Fate tears down what I create

While laughing in my face
And It will decide when it's over
I'm trapped inside
