Addicted

A Life Divided

Fallen leaves on your shades
Waterdrops inside our heads
Ticking clocks in our hearts
Screaming silence wherever we are

And I wonder why we're addicted
And I wonder why we're addicted to us

The bitter rest of belief
Keeps pretending to mean something

And I wonder why we're addicted
And I wonder why we're addicted to us

[Chorus]
Falling down, hit the ground
Every breath gets harder to breathe
"No time for hasitation"
"No time for mercy"
Let's blame it on the critics
They only take their places to watch us bleed

Broken trust in our ways
Cutting pieces out of ourselves
Lying worlds, showing cards

Can't stop thinking of when we were young
And I wonder why we're addicted
And I wonder why we're addicted to us

[Chorus]

Everyone bleeds of his own
When it's time, it's time to go
Would you like to live forever...
...all alone?

Maybe we can find a way
Maybe we can ask to stay
Maybe we could last forever
Forever...

"And I wonder why we're addicted"
"And I wonder why we're addicted us"
"No time for hasitation"
No time for mercy

[Chorus]

"And I wonder why we're addicted"
"And I wonder why we're addicted us"
