

Believe

A Life Divided

The stillness after all
Is ringing in my head
Where once there was a storm
Is now a place that's dead

Is there anybody who gives me anybody?
Is there anybody there?

I see the writings on the wall
But I cannot believe, no I cannot believe
I see the pictures on the floor
But I cannot believe you're gone

The sky it seems too frown
Blue turns into grey
The night begins to call out my name
Just like nothing ever changed
