A Life Divided

Made me want you
Made me need you
Stole my soul and my time
And my freedom
Kept me hanging on

Made me love you
Made me feel good
Broke my heart and my spine
Made me dream on
I still dream on

Pretty little lies still ringing in my ear
Pretty little something made me disappear

[Chorus]

I tried so hard to be a friend
I tried so hard to be a man
I shot my gods to know your name
I tried so hard to be a friend

Made me touch you
Made me kill you
Tore me out of my life
And the place where I belong
Got me into your storm
Made me miss you
Made me feel you
Drop my heart just by saying

That I'm not the chosen one
And you keep searching on

Pretty little lies still ringing in my ear
Pretty little something made me disappear

[Chorus 2]

I tried so hard to be a friend
I tried so hard to be a man
I shot my gods to know your name
I tried so hard to be a friend
I tried so hard to be a friend
I tried so hard to be a man
I tried so...
I tried so...
I tried so hard to be a friend

"I tried so hard to be a friend"
"I tried so hard to be a man"
"I shot my gods to know your name"
"I tried so hard to be a friend"

[Chorus]
