

Far

A Life Divided

It feels cold tonight
Watch the fallen leaves
I get lost tonight
In my broken dreams

Make them go away and make me feel alive
For only one last blink of an eye

Far
Could you take me far away?
Could you show me better days...

...before I am gone?

I don't say goodbye
And I don't shed a tear
I go down to die
Without any fear

Make them go away and make me feel alive
For only one last blink of an eye
