

Forever

A Life Divided

Like a stone in troubled water
Like a grain of sand inside the sea
Like the land between the borders
Like the blood inside of you and me
It all lies in the hands of misery

No one can see
why it is, how it is
We keep falling astray
in the end we just exist
One thing you should know
we ain't gonna live forever (forever)
(2x)

Like a king without a treasure
Like a cage without a bird to flee
Like a tear drop in the desert
Like the man inside of you and me
It all lies in the hands of misery

(No one can see why it is how it is)

No one can see
why it is, how it is
We keep falling astray
in the end we just exist
One thing you should know
we ain't gonna live forever (forever)
(2x)
