

Push

A Life Divided

You push my back against the wall
I cannot scream, can't move at all
You hold my whole life in your hands
Take a bite and spit it out again
Well I've been taking it for so long
Painted the writings on the wall
Please make me understand
The reason why it never ends
And you push my back against the wall
I cannot see your face at all
I'm gonna break that wall
I'm gonna break that wall

'Cause you think you're right in what you do
Fly so high by breaking every rule
Because your words are missing any truth
I'm gonna break you too

'Cause you burned our fields along your way
Because you changed heaven into hell
I was young thinking I was alone
Weak on my own but together we're strong

We don't break and we're no driftwood in the stream
We don't go away

[Chorus]
Let's start a fight, 'cause this is the end
100 thousand fists up in the air
Make us rise, this is our revenge
100 thousand fists up in the air
In the air

'Cause you sent our sons into the flames
While you keep on playing selfish games
'Cause you hold us down in every way
We're gonna break that cage

We ain't gonna follow anymore
Ain't nobody gonna join your war
Get yourself right out of the black
Watch your back, because we know where you're at

We don't break and we're no driftwood in the stream
We don't go away

[Chorus]
This is the life
This is the time
"Let's start a fight"
This is the life
"In the air, 100 thousand fists up in the air"
Come, join our fight
