

All I Want Is You

A Loss for Words

I wonder sometimes
I wonder if I was wrong
Tryna do right by you got me here
Now all I am is alone

Cause her eyes
And those hips
And that (ass)
Don't compare, at all (no)
And at best, all they do is distract me
But now, deep down, when I face it

All I want is you
All I want is you (now)
All I want is you now
Now that you're gone, gone, gone

Cause being a friend was killing me softly
Hear voices
Wondering where I went wrong
It was my fault, in the wrong time,
I wonder so often, regret get exhausted

Cause her eyes
And those hips
And that (ass)
Don't compare, at all (no)
And at best, all they do is distract me
But now, deep down, when I face it

All I want is you (mhm)

All I want is you (now)
All I want is you now (baby)
Now that you're gone, gone, gone, gone, gone

Cause they don't smile
Or smell like you
No they don't make me laugh
Or even cook like you
And they don't photograph
Nah, they don't sex like you
Let's face it, I can't replace it
That's why all I want is you now...
