

Falling

A Loss for Words

I caught the glimmer in her eye, pierces right through me.
Is this real? Am I falling for her?
Is this real? Am I imagining things?
Our eyes met, unexpected, maybe this is love.

We're falling in love.
I never thought you'd be the one.
Never thought you'd be the one, yeah.

Now she's running through my mind, her laugh sounds like home.
Is this real? Am I falling for her?
Is this real? Am I better off alone?
Our eyes met, unexpected, maybe this is love.

We're falling in love.
I never thought you'd be the one.
Never thought you'd be the one, yeah.

Never thought she'd be the one to notice.
Never thought she'd be the one to care.
Never thought she'd be the one to say I'll always be there.

We're falling in love.
I never thought you'd be the one.
Never thought you'd be the one, yeah.
