

Shut Up!

A Perfect Circle

Once upon a time you wanted the revolution
Once upon a time you fought in the streets
Once upon a time you fought against pollution for equality and for love and peace
Now you are a fucking politician
now you tell us the same old lies
Now you are a fucking politician
now you tell us the same old lies
Shut up your face forever
Vanish into thin air forever
Shut up your face forever
Vanish into thin air forever
Once upon a time you fought against sexism
Once upon a time you fought for women rights Once upon a time you fought against oppression you fought with your friends side by side Now you are an ordinary citizen and a member of the middle class
Now you are an ordinary citizen
and a member of the middle class
Shut up your face forever
Vanish into thin air forever
Shut up your face forever
Vanish into thin air forever
and the overthrow you took a firm stand Once upon a time you came to the conclusion that you risk your neck with a weapon in your hand
Now racism is your new conviction
You went over to the opposition
Now racism is your new conviction
You went over to the opposition
Shut up your face forever
Vanish into thin air forever
Shut up your face forever
Vanish into thin air forever
Shut up your face (your face)
Shut up your face (your face)
Shut up (Shut up) Shut up (Shut up)
Shut up your face
